

UBC FAMILY PRACTICE CLINICAL TEACHING certificate

UBC's Family Practice Department is proud to offer a certificate program in Clinical Teaching.

Upon COMPLETION of the UBC FP Clinical Teaching Certificate participants will be able to:

- Describe and apply competency-based approaches to teaching and assessment
- Integrate core teaching skills into practice
- Reflect upon their teaching to identify areas for ongoing improvement

To EARN a Clinical Teaching Certificate, applicants must provide evidence of the following:

- Successful completion of all five (5) core Family Practice Faculty Development modules (Planning for Learning, Observation and Feedback, Writing Field Notes, Learner-centered Teaching, Performance Assessment).
- Successful completion of one (1) of the following additional Family Practice Faculty Development modules:
 - » What Do Adult Learners Want?
 - » Diagnosing the Learner in Difficulty
 - » Supporting the Learner in Difficulty
- Completion of the Clinical Teaching Certificate application form

All Family Practice Faculty Development modules are 1-hour, interactive workshops that are accessed through each site's Site Faculty for Faculty Development. Some modules may also be available through Postgraduate faculty development events, such as Teacher's Toolbox and Okanagan Orchards. Equivalency for some of these requirements may be considered in unique circumstances.

ACCREDITATION:

As an organization accredited to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians by the Committee on Accreditation of Continuing Medical Education (CACME), the UBC Division of Continuing Professional Development designates this educational program as meeting the accreditation criteria of the College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 8.0 (1.0 per module) Mainpro-M1 credits. This program has been reviewed and approved by UBC Division of Continuing Professional Development. Each physician should claim only those credits he/she actually spent in the activity.
