

EDUCATION DELIVERABLES
SITE FACULTY – FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

Responsible for Faculty Development within the site

Together with the Site Directors, Lead Faculty and other Site Faculty, the Site Faculty for Faculty Development form a "matrix" type of organization for the Residency Program. The incumbent will report primarily to the Site Director and the Lead Faculty for Faculty Development.

Responsibilities include:

- Attendance at regular site faculty meeting or site residents education committee meeting
- Attendance at quarterly teleconferences or retreats of the UBC Department of Family Practice Faculty Development Committee
- Active involvement in resident selection as well as department wide function of the UBC Department of Family Practice
- Responsible for organizing the professional development of the preceptors in the areas of resident teaching and education for local faculty
- To assist lead faculty in providing program wide faculty development workshops to clinical faculty
- To act as a resource person for the local faculty
- To ensure that the appropriate resources are available to all preceptors in their ability to deliver the educational objectives in teaching
- To work closely with other site faculty to ensure that the faculty development activities are structured to provide support for the areas of evaluation, curriculum and research
- To develop strategies to retain and increase the number of preceptors

Program requirements

- Participation (maximum 8 hours per year) in the collaborative resident selection process both at the Program level and at the site level, as well as department wide function of the UBC Department of Family Medicine

Reporting:

- The Site faculty reports to their Site Director and the Lead Faculty for Faculty Development

Qualification:

- Membership and certificant of the College of Family Physicians of Canada
- Eligible for licensure in B.C.
- Educational and administrative experience is required
- Demonstrated ability in teaching and working with residents

Remuneration

- Remuneration will be negotiated with the site director and Program Director depending on the size of the site and the time required.