

Final paper

All projects require a final paper. All papers must include the following:

Title

Author(s): list on a separate line

Principal investigator/supervisor(s): list on a separate line

Key stakeholders: list on a separate line

Abstract: check your project type for specific requirements

Key sections of paper: check your project type for specific requirements

If you are doing a project type that is not included on the website (e.g., you are writing your paper for publication to a journal), please discuss the details for your paper requirements with your scholar faculty.
